For more than 40 years, East Whiteland Township has been sponsoring a Summer Recreation Program for children from Kindergarten through the 6th grade. For the 2018 season, Camp Director Michelle Mariano-Fasano has planned another five-week summer program guaranteed to be fun for all. Supervised by an enthusiastic team of Camp Counselors, children will enjoy a wide variety of activities from active recreational games to arts & crafts. Held at the K.D. Markley School, camp starts on Monday, June 25th and finishes on Friday, July 27th. So register your child or children now for a fun filled summer at a camp that is close to home and at a fraction of the cost of other camps!
